

ReID-gated target reassociation after target reappearance

Normal part-OCLEID

Gated part-OCLEID

Normal:
Target is visible, but conservative confirmation withholds output.

Gated:
Original method returns no target.
A strong candidate passes the frozen gate and is reassociated.

Note:
ByteTrack association is unchanged.
The gate links the known target identity to an existing track.